

As the regulatory playing field shifts and expectations rise, compliance risk management is increasingly essential. Stedman Consulting is an ideal partner for financial institutions seeking expert support and guidance on regulatory compliance risks.

Achieving a careful balance between the expectations of regulators and the business objectives of financial companies, Stedman Consulting delivers high-quality, customized solutions that stand up to today's regulatory realities. Our goal is to create sustainable, efficient and effective compliance risk solutions that make sense for your financial institution.

Rooted in hands-on, real-world experience and offering a wealth of compliance risk management expertise, including deep fair lending and UDAAP knowledge, Stedman Consulting is a trusted advisor to financial institutions of all sizes. Stedman Consulting Group partners with other consulting and legal firms as needed, working in the way that best supports each client.

EXPERT

When it comes to depth of knowledge, Stedman Consulting stands out. Sharon Stedman brings over 20 years of diverse experience building, managing, implementing, defending, and examining compliance programs. Having worked from all sides of the regulatory environment as a banker, compliance examiner, and enforcement attorney, Stedman Consulting serves as an incredibly well-rounded expert, adept at creating nimble, effective compliance solutions.

EFFECTIVE

Stedman Consulting partners with you to prepare for regulatory exams and new regulatory requirements. We work efficiently to devise sustainable compliance risk solutions, leveraging the financial institution's existing data, testing or processes to create workable, tailored solutions that stand the test of time. We deliver customized, risk-based programs that anticipate tomorrow's regulatory challenges.
